

National Marrow Donor Program
20th Edition Standards

Errata Table

This is a correction table for the 20th Edition of the NMDP Standards. Please note these with any updates to your facility's policies, procedures or processes. All changes will be incorporated with the next edition in the scheduled course of review.

Std#	20th Edition Standard	Comment	Interim Standard
7.1300	Center shall have a designated inpatient unit that minimizes airborne microbial contamination	Do you mean just "microbial"?	Center shall have a designated inpatient unit that minimizes microbial contamination
8.2420	Bank shall inform, counsel and document counseling of biologic mother regarding any abnormal finding	Perhaps use the term "clinically significant" abnormal finding?	Bank shall inform, counsel and document counseling of biologic mother regarding any clinically significant abnormal finding
10.2500	After collection, the apheresis center shall not further process or cryopreserve product without the direct consent of the transplant center and approval of the NMDP.	GTPs define "processing" to include product sterility testing, preservation for storage and removal from storage.	After collection, the apheresis center shall not cryopreserve the product, or manipulate of the product without the direct consent of the transplant center and approval of the NMDP.
10.7100	The product (Cord Blood) and tie-tag shall include at least the following: 10.7100.07 Total nucleated cell count per ml	reporting units inconsistent	The product (Cord Blood) and tie-tag shall include at least the following: 10.7100.07 Total nucleated cell count
11.3120		There are two standards with the same number	Correct using sequential numbering
Glossary	HLA (HLA typing)	Do you want to spell out HLA or remove (HLA)?	Human Leukocyte Antigen (HLA) Typing